LET'S TAKE ANOTHER LOOK

Dr. Vanessa Dantzer Ussery | August 24, 2016

"I believe it blows our mind to believe that God wants to do much so for us. Is it hard to believe? You know what the Lord told me one day? He said, 'One of the biggest problems that hurts you all is you become influenced by the world's thinking. Is it true I bless only those that have their own? What scripture does that come from? Everything you have I gave it to you. Psychologically, your world conditions you to think you have to help yourself. To an extent you do have to help yourselves but the way you do it is not the way the world wants you to think. You are better off helping yourself by not helping Me, but believe what I say.'

We need to help ourselves to stop helping ourselves and recognize where the help comes from and who has the power, the strength, and the authority to take control over the evil, the ungodliness, the unpleasantness, the injustices, and the unkindness in the world. In reality we think that if we don't step up at some point, it is not going to get done. We believe that at some point, if we don't do something, our life is not going to be handled. I'm not talking about sitting back idly and being docile. What I'm talking about is recognizing that we need to realize each day of our life we make progress – because the Bible says that 'the steps of the righteous man are ordered by God.' You know why? If they're being ordered by Almighty God, then the righteous person takes instruction, advice, counsel and wisdom from the Lord on a continuous basis. When you do that what does it open up for you? All the power, authority and wisdom of heaven are open to you and at your disposal." - Excerpt from "My Be Attitude, who Be you?" pp 56-7

It is imperative we take another look at how we assess our life and our response to what impacts it. Daily we need to ask the Lord to clear our mind of the influence of the world's thinking so we can remain open to hearing His voice, following His lead, and walking in the path He has ordered for us. God desires to do more for us in our lives than we can ask or think. Let's endeavor to walk in the Light!
